Brooklyn Artists Gym

(Brooklyn, NY — February 3, 2012) The Gallery at BAG is proud to present The Figure Now, an exhibition showcasing figurative works by ten local and international artists.

The Figure Now offers viewers an array of figurative paintings and drawings with imagery ranging from representational to abstract in a variety of media. The extensive scope of style is also shown through the distinct scales, themes, narratives, and techniques that each of the artists employ. The artwork's contemporary settings distinguish these pieces from historical precedents concerning figurative work.
